PERSONAL--but not Confidential

ou know, has been to instil in the minds of all of you the imperative need of laying by some of the money you earn and investing it in securities that are issued by business enterprises on whose activities terested in taking care of your money and in investing it where it will be safe and, at the same time, earn a good rate of interest, will be glad to learn that Cities Service Company and its subsidiaries, created through the foresight and ability of Henry L. Doherty & Company, are the backbone of essential industries that serve satisfactorily 651 communities in the United States and Canada.

Well, I cannot tell you about dates, but I remember what I saw.

Witness Peeped Through Keyhole
Q.—Well, what did you see? A.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall? A.—Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais and an Italian came up from New York.
Q.—Well, what else do you recall?

The magnitude of the operations of Cities Service Company and its subsidiaries may be summed up in the following paragraphs which are the records of 1920:

Produced more than 13,600,000 barrels of Crude Oil.

Generated and sold 703,000,000 Kilowatt Hours of Electric Current. Produced 38,000,000,000 Cubic Feet of Natural Gas.

Produced 7,000,000,000 Feet of Artificial Gas.

Carried 113,000,000 passengers on its electric railways.

Forbes, printed March 8, 1921, shows the position of Cities Service Company and its subsidiaries among other big enterprises: "The U. S. Steel Corporation started off twenty years ago with fewer than 13,500 stockholders. The other day it reported more than 95,000 common and more than 80,000 preferred stockholders. The aver-age holding is now under 54 shares. "The American Tetephone Company in 1910 had 40,000 stockholders. It now has practically 100,000 more, 138,699, to be elact.

"The Cities Service Co. reports almost 100,000 holders of stocks and debentures of the parent and subsidiary corporations, an extraordinary increase over two years ago.

wift & Company shares are distrib-among 50,000 holders, including 10,000 employees, who are buying on installment plan.

eneral Motors had fewer than 2,000 tholders at the opening of 1917; it has over 49,000.

maconda Copper had only a little 4,000 stockholders ten years ago; it has more than 31,000.

JUST A SUGGESTION

HOW TO GET $10

COMING IN EVERY MONTH

You can buy this stock through any reputable broker or direct from Henry L. Doherty & Company, 60 Wall Street, who will send a representative to see you and give you further particulars if you wish.

Sincerely yours, William C. Freeman, .117 West 46th Street.

"General Electric a decade ago had The Fennsylvania Railroad in 1900 fewer than 25,000 stockholders: it has 125,000. The average holding sy is under 80 shares (par value $50), reas four years uso the average ling was 11 shares. Over 60,000 saylvania stockholders are women, a one month Lehigh Valley Railroad a one month Lehigh Valley Railroad

Sheltered Pair From Storm
Q.—Can you tell us when you saw Beauvais and Mrs. Stillman together?
A.—Yes; it was late in 1917. It was dark and there was a heavy rainstorm.
Q.—Was it at your home that Beauvais and Mrs. Stillman sought shelter?
A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Well, tell us what happened. A.
—Well, they asked to be accommodated with rooms for the night, as they were some distance from home.
Q.—Well, ean you tell us what you did? A.—Mrs. Stillman wanted to take a bath, and we gave her a room upstairs, right opposite to the bath.
Q.—Well, what happened, if you know? A.—Well, Mr. Beauvais went upstairs with Mrs. Stillman. I remained in the corridor. Mrs. Stillman went into her room and then went into the bathroom.
Q.—Well, what happened after that?

K. Beauvais.
—What did you see? A.—I saw

I did painting.

Q.—How did you observe these things that you have noted? A.—Well, I saw this mostly from a scaf-

Q.—How many times did you see Mrs. Stillman and Mr. Beauvais in the room? A.—About eight or ten times.

Henry L. Doherty & Company have put over a big group of industries in a very successful way and I'll say that they qualify in every way as counsellors to you in the matter of making wise and safe investments.

If you buy 20 shares of 6 per cent.

Cumulative Preferred Stock of Cities Service Company, costing now only about $1,340, you will get a check for $10 in the mail the first of each month. YOU WILL GET NEARLY 9 PER CENT. ON YOUR WONEY

Yes. That is Fred K. Beauvais.

Peepers Tell Of Spying on Peage had previously admitted climbing. The ladder was raised to the windows of Mrs. Stillman's room and then to the room of Beauvais.) A.—What room do you mean?

Q.—Well, I mean what room did you look in first? A.—I looked in Mrs. Stillman's bedroom. room, Q.—Well, go on, did you see anything at all—did you note anything?
A.—Do you mean in Mrs. Stillman's room? No, the bed was not disturbed.
Q.—Well, where did you go next?
A.—I went to look into the room of Fred K. Reauvais

Q.—Well, what did you do or what did you see? A.—The bed of Mrs. Stillman had not been disturbed. Q.—Did Beauvais's from adjoin Mrs. Stillman's? A.—Yes. Q.—What did you see? A.—I went in the your two persons.

Q.—Do you know who those persons were? A.—Yes, they were Fred K. Beauvais and Mrs. Stillman.

Q.—Well, what did you notice when you looked there? A.—Well, they appeared to be sleeping.

Q.—Could you look around the room and see things? A.—Yes; I did.

Q.—What did you do about the house? A.—Well, I did latticework and I did painting. did you see? A.—The bed of Mrs.
Stillman had not been disturbed.
Q.—Did Beauvais's from adjoin Mrs.
Stillman's? A.—Yes.
Q.—What did you see? A.—I went in the room.
Q.—Do you remember about what time in the morning this was? A.—Yes, it was about 10 or 10:30.
Q.—What did you find, if anything?
A.—I found some lady's underclothes and hairpins.
Q.—Do, you recall looking into Beauvais's room on any other occasion?
A.—Yes, there was over in Servature.

Q.—Do you recall looking into Beauvais's room on any other occasion?

A.—Yes, there was once in September,

Coney's Condition Unchanged;

CITIES SERVICE COMPANY STANDS HIGH IN THE
NUMBER OF INVESTORS

The following article by B. C. orbes, printed March 8, 1921.

A representative of Stanfield & Levy, of counsel for Mrs. Stillman, said that the transcript of testimony must have come from one of three sources. He said that two of them, Referee Gleason and the court stenographer, were bound not to make it public and that it would be unethical for the attorneys to make it public.

To Rule on Admission of Letters

mained in the corridor. Mrs. Stillman went into the bathroom.

Q.—Well, what happened after that?
A.—Mrs. Stillman went into the bedroom and Beauvais went in, too.
Q.—What did you do? A.—I remained in the corridor.
Q.—What happened? A.—Well, they closed the door of Mrs. Stillman's room —it was closed.
Q.—What happened them? A.—Beauvais came out, and the light in Mrs. Stillman's room was turned down. Q.—What happened after that? A.—I fixed Beauvais up on a couch in the hall.
Q.—Why did you stay in the corridor? A.—Well, I am a good woman and have six children—most of them are girls.
Q.—But why did you stand in the corridor all that time? A.—Well, I was anxious to see what was happening.
The witness was cross-examined by William Coggill, one of Mrs. Stillman's letter could not be considered competent evidence against Mrs. Stillman between with the All. Q.—What is your business. A.—I live at La Papue, in the Province of Quebec. Q.—What is your business. A.—I am a French-Canadian. Q.—What is your business. A.—I am a woodsman and a farmer. Q.—I show you a photograph and it is?
A.—Yes. That is Fred K. Beauvais.
Will Attack Beauvais Letters
Mrs. Stillman's letter could not be construction, it is said, may be placed on the letter written by Mr. Stillman long after the birth of Guy Stillman long after the birth of Guy Stillman long after the birth of Guy Stillman for the woman he new seeks to divorce and it is?

When Supreme Court Justice Morsender and sexpected he application of Mrs. Stillman for Stillman for competency as evidence of the correspondence attached to the papers supporting and opposing the motion.

A ruling on this much correspondence attached to the papers supporting and opposing the motion.

A ruling on this much discussed point will have an all-important bear-ing on the final outcome of the Stillman double of the Stillman in question are the final double of the still man decision on the application of the sale and indication of the same in the correspondence and illegitiman of the correspondence and il

A.—Yes. That is Fred K. Beauvais.

Beauvais' Father an Indian
Q.—Do you know Beauvais's father and mother? A.—Yes. Beauvais's father is an Indian, a brown man. His mother is a white woman—very white.
Q.—Well, you would not say that Beauvais is a full-blooded Indian? A.—He is mixed.
Q.—I show you another photograph—do you know who this is? A.—Yes, that is Mrs. Stillman.

Q.—Can you tell us when you say the surrogate Gleason, the referee.

Will Attack Beauvais Letters

Mrs. Stillman's lawyers are expected to brand the alleged Baauvais letters as incompetent evidence on the ground they were never received by her. These letters are said to have come into the possession of Mr. Stillman in a mysterious manner following their dispatch from Canada.

Regardless of the character of the letters, it is said every effort will be made by opposing counsel to get their documentary proof into the record when Surrogate Gleason, the referee. Wil Attack Beauvais Letters wife other than those that have been mentioned? A.—No.

Trail Missing

John E. Mack, guardian ad litem for Guy Stillman, yourgest son of Mrs. Stillman, objected.

"I object to this, question," he said, "not only as to its form but as to its being legal. I wish to call the refere's attention to the fact that it would bear, on the legitimacy of a child, and the praintiff is not qualified to offer evidence on that score here."

Referee Gleason sustained the objection and the answer, "No," was stricken out.

Wr. Stillman was not cross-examined. The next witness was Jacry Brenon, a carp, inter and woodman, having at Grand /inse, Canada, He is a French-Canadian. He, too, was questioned by Mrs. Stillman, nor of the child Jay Leeds, alleged to be an offspring of the banker and Mrs. Leeds. Consider Dropping Bivorce Issue. Recent developments in the case, including the display by both sides of what is said to be substantial evidence of equal weight, caused opposing law-to the discontinuance of the child, guy weight, caused opposing law-yers to consider a discontinuance of the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the divorce issue. Such a determination, if reached, however, according to the div region of the secundate—in trying to spread upon you and me what a specific control of the secundate—in trying to spread upon you and me what a specific control of the secundate in the secundat it the baby is of unlawful issue, e charge that Guy is an illegitimate ild must be proved by greater weight evidence and beyond a reasonable tice. Lynam is wanted here by the

Beauvais dren, but, notwithstanding this fact, thinking before

Beauvais gave his brief interview at the home of the Rev. J. A. de Tremblay, one of his friends, and frequently called upon him to substantiate his statements. Mr. de Tremblay not only substantiated statements but made some of his own, among them one that Beauvais had supernatural powers.

De Tremblay said that he was a student of the occult and had learned to see the spirits of the living as well as those of the dead. In Fred Beauvais, he said, he saw a spirit peculiarly in accord with the invisible world.

Beauvais gave his brief interview at the surple scompany pay rolts and the men are without funds.

Investigations have revealed discrepancies in Lynam's accounts extending over several years, it was said to-day, dating back to his services as paymaster on the U. S. S. Pueblo, eight years ago.

Lynam spent money lavishly while a girls.

Physicians said yesterday that the tablets Josephine had swallowed evidently were bichloride of mercury.

Lynam spent money lavishly while a girls.

Physicians said yesterday that the tablets Josephine had swallowed evidently were bichloride of mercury.

Bandits Steal Pay Roll

Lock Up Employees of Jersey Firm and Get $1,500

at South River, N. J., at noon yesterday, held up three employees of the Injured Flyer Still Conscious firm who were making up the pay roll and escaped with two bags containing condition of Lieutenant W. D. Coney, transcontinental aviator, who suffered a broken back in a fall yesterday during his attempted coast to coast flight, was reported to-night as having shown little change.

The flyer was said by him to the condition of the condition of Lieutenant W. D. Coney, The bandits entered the office just after the messenger and guard who brought the money had left. Pointing their revolvers at the two clerks, they forced them into a closet, locking the door. Another employee who are the condition of Lieutenant W. D. Coney, The bandits entered the office just after the messenger and guard who brought the money had left. Pointing their revolvers at the two clerks, they have been conditioned. NATCHEZ, Miss., March 26 .- The

The witness was cross-examined by william Coggill, for Mrs. Stillman made the following statement concerning than 2,—Yes, I do, 2—Do you know Mrs. James A. Stillman and you tell me whether you recognize it?
A.—Yes, I do, you do for a livelihood?
A.—Housewife.
Q.—Do you know Mrs. James A. Stillman and you tell me whether you recognize it?
A.—Yes, I do, you do for a livelihood?
A.—Housewife.
Q.—I show you a photograph, can you tell me whether you recognize it?
A.—Yes, I do, you tell us when you saw Beauvais and Mrs. Stillman together?
A.—Yes, I tak is mrs. Stillman together?
A.—Yes, that is mrs. Stillman together?
A.—Yes, I tak you the money had left. Deinting the money had left. Deinting was reported to might as having about the money had left. Deinting the mon Direct From the Trapper BOAS Foxes, Taupe or Brown - $25 and less Foxes, Natural Blue - - $150 and less Foxes, Natural Black - - $200 and less Foxes, White - - - - $75 and less Foxes, Dyed Blue - - - $75 and less Foxes, Grey Kit - - - $20 and less Russian Sable - - - - $60 and tess Baum Marten - - - - $45 and less Skunk - - - - - $15 and less Hudson Bay Sable - - - $45 and less Grey Squirrel - - - - $12 and less Natural Fitch (2-skin) - $16 and less Mink . - - - - - - - $25 and less Opossum - - - - - $6.50 and less Russian Crown Sables - $400 and less WM JACKMAN'S SON'S America's Largest Wholesale Farriers

35-37-39 WEST 35th STREET

NEW YORK

Girl Seizes Burglar Suspect Erwin Bergdoll Runs to Roof and Grips Him With Stranglehold

Of Spying on

Mrs. Stillman on

Confidential

Letter No. 41

Continued from pass one)

The objective of these letters, as on know, has been to instil in the indice of laying by some of the imperative of the mean and the years of laying by some of the imperative of the country design of the day of the house of him of the letters, it will not predict the find may be in regard to the adjudication of the case, when, he adjudication of the case, when, and the said of the adjudication of the case, when, and the adjudication of the case, when the said they are substituted to him.

At the outset of the action it is said the proposition of the case, when the adjudication of the case, whe her apartment on the fourth floor and that he had run to the roof.

Pauline ran to the roof, too, and when patrolmen arrived they found her there with a strangle hold on eighteen-year-old Otto Mass and crying triumphantly, "I've got the burglar!" Mass, who said he was just shooting craps when the girl tackled him, was locked up at the Fifth Street police station. Nothing had been stolen from the Bula apartment, so far as the family could discover.

Boys 'Play Doctor,' Poison Girl With Pills They Found

tle Patient Is Near Death
From Drugs Left in Street
Seven-year-old Roy Strom and sevenser-old Lafayette Jorgenson, both livg at 173 Twenty-ninth Street, Brookn, hereafter will likely do a lot of inking before they pick up any more blets and brown bottles in the street.
They were both arraigned yesterday
if ore Justice Levy in the Brooklyn, hildren's Court and held in $500 bail cause they picked up tablets and a sown bottle and administered two blets and a dash of the liquid conined in the bottle to four-year-old sephine Olsen, 171 Twenty-ninth reet, Brooklyn, while "playing docr" last Tuesday. Justice Levy reanideren's Society until next Thursday, ttle Josephine was reported to be in failed to show that notification had been received by Bergdoll.

The prisoner, a brother of Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, draft evader who escaped to Germany, was present in court. He was brought here from Leavenworth handcuffed to a member of the military guard. Bergdoll was started back to the army prison immediately after the hearing.

Major Cresson testified he first saw Erwin Bergdoll on the parade ground at Governor's Island, N. Y., on July 2:
last. He asked Bergdoll if he wanted to be represented at the court martial be wanted to "get it over as soon as possible," Major Cresson said.

Bergdoll replied "No," adding that the wanted to "get it over as soon as possible," Major Cresson said.

"I'm tired running around the country; I always knew they wanted me," the quoted Bergdoll early in 1918 About ten days after the close of the court martial, Major Cresson testified, Captain Ambrose Clougher, counsel for altering the military of the Brooklyn, who is wanted bere for u murder on August 25 of Vincea by street, Brooklyn, who is "playing docr" last Tuesday. Justice Levy reanded the boys to the care of the court martial, Major Cresson testified,
Captain Ambrose Clougher, counsel for the military guard. Bergdoll was start to be represented at the court martial
be wanted to "get it over as soon as possible," Major Cr

Called Guy "Our Child"

Beauvais Asserts That Stillman Children Regarded Him as a Sort of Foster Parent Special Dispatch to The Tribune

MONTREAL, March 26.—Fred Beauvais Assert, admitted to day that Mr. Stillman, the New York banker, named as corespondent in his divorce surt, admitted to-day that Mr. Stillman's counsel might have a letter written by Beauvais to Mrs. Stillman in which he called her infant son, Guy. "our child."

His explanation of this reference to the child, whose legitimacy Mr. Stillman is assailing, is that Mrs. Stillman and her children were so neglected by her husband that it devolved unon himself, the major domo of the estate on the St. Maurice River, to watch over the welfare of the family.

He had been doctor and nurse when reconstruction and marked the child, was begun. His safe on the major and nurse when the core of the Chester was neared and the child of the family.

He had been doctor and nurse when reconstruction was begun. His safe on the chester was neared and the child safe to have developed shortly after he had obtained in the bottle and administered two tablets and a, dash of the liquid contained in the bottle and administered two tablets and a, dash of the liquid contained in the bottle to fourty-ear-old Josephine Olsen, 171 Twenty-ninth Street, Brooklyn, while "playing doctor" last Tuesday. Justice Levy remanded the boys to the care of the Children's Society until next Thursday. Little Josephine was reported to be in a serious condition last night at her home, but dectors expressed the belief that she will recover.

Josephine Olsen, 171 Twenty-ninth Street, Brooklyn, while "playing doctor" last Tuesday. Justice Levy remanded the boys to the care of the Children's Society until next Thursday. Little Josephine was reported to be in a serious condition last night at her home, but dectors expressed the belief that she will recover.

Josephine Olsen, 171 Twenty-ninth Street, Brooklyn, while "playing doctor" last Tuesday. Justice Levy remanded the boys to the care of the Children

He had been doctor and nurse when one of the children was ill, he said, and was with the children so constantly that they regarded him as a sort of foster-parent. He had a real affection for the children who were under his care, he said, and might sometimes refer to any of them in a joking way as his child.

Beauvais gave his brief interview at the home of the Rev. J. A. de Tremblay, one of his friends.

Told Cresson He Got Draft Notice

Judge Advocate at Trial of Draft Dodger Testifies to Admission at Hearing on 342 Water Street, was crushed to HabeasCorpusApplication under the wheels of a four-ton from the Federal disciplinary barracks at Leavenworth was taken under advisement to-day by Judge John C. Pollock after a hearing in the Federal court in Kansas City, Kan.

KANSAS CITY, March 26 .- Applica- Water Street. In his right hand

Major Charles C. Cresson, judge advocate, who conducted the prosecution of Bergdoll at his court martial trial last July, was the only witness heard. He testified that Bergdoll had admitted to him after the trial that he received notification by mail calling him into service under the selective draft. Bergdoll's attorneys objected to introduction of the testimony on the ground that the record of the court martial failed to show that notification had been rooklyn Lads Arraigned in Children's Court as Little Patient Is Near Death

The Prisoner of Court as Little Patient Is Near Death

The Prisoner of the court martial failed to show that notification had been received by Bergdoll.

The Prisoner of Protection of Court and Court

Bergdoll, handed him the original notice received by Bergdoll early in 1918 ordering him to report for military service. Captain Clougher remarked, the major testified: "You would have liked to have seen this during the trial."

Major Cresson said he returned the notice to Bergdoll and that Bergdoll said: "Yes. I got it. I always knew they wanted me."

The government attorneys asked that this testimony be made part of the record in the habeas corpus action.

James Eads How Has Plan

For New Coxey's Army March SALT LAKE CITY, March 26.—James Eads How, known as "the millionaire hobo," who is engaged in forming an "organization of unemployed" here, declared to-day that it was probable that a big delegation would wait on President Harding soon and request that work on government projects be hastened to provide more jobs.

He said the delegation which would go to Washington would travel afoot, picking up unemployed on the route, and that it might number several thousand before it reached Washington.

Republican assignments. Senator I Follette, of Wisconsin, is a new mean ber of the Steering Committee.

Twins Abandoned; Tag on On girl, were found yesterday in the vestibule of the nine-story elevate apartment house at 225 West Sevent first Street. They were taken to Belli yield the girl's wrist was found a tag mark "Berger." SALT LAKE CITY, March 26. James

Autos Kill Two Children Runaway Horses a Thir

Lad Taken From Under True Still Clutching Apple in One Hand, Two Pennies in Other Two children were killed by ag

Italy Holds Alleged Slaver

WASHINGTON, March 26.—See Lodge, of Massachusetts, is to be common of the Republican Steering (mittee as well as Senate floor lefor the majority, according to plan the Republican organization. He succeed Senator McCumber, of N Dakota, as head of the unofficial sing committee which has all

Dakota, as head of the unofficial stering committee, which has a large pain directing party action.

Senator McCumber, who was a "mireservationist" in the treaty control of the Republicans in the contest, has been given a place on the Committee of Committees, which make Republican assignments. Senator Follette, of Wisconsin, is a new mether of the Steering Committee.

Flint's Fine Furniture

The best furniture costs least and long after its original cost has passed out of mind, dependable furniture still remains faithful in service. For more than 80 Years Flint Quality has demonstrated the economy of buying the best. Now, particularly during this period of price re-adjustment, Flint Values are exceptional. We have re-marked our entire stocks without regard to replacement costs in order to continue, without slackening, the greatly increased volume of our business since the beginning of the year.

WE GUARANTEE THAT IF, FOR ANY REASON, DURING THIS YEAR WE QUOTE A LOWER PRICE ON ANYTHING SOLD AT THIS TIME, WE WILL RETURN TO EVERY PURCHASER THE AMOUNT OF THE DIFFERENCE.

SPECIALS—FOR THIS WEEK DINING ROOM FURNITURE

D833-Louis XVI. Mahogany or Walnut 10-piece Dining Room Suite, 66 inch Buffet, 54 inch Round Formerly Dining Table (solid Mahogany or Walnut top), 8 foot extension, China Closet, Serving Table, 5 Side and 1 Arm Chairs, with leather seats.

$790.00. $395.00 NOW

D835—Adam Mahogany 3-piece Pedestal Sideboard 7 foot 6 inches over all, with hanging mirror, 2 Knife Formerly Urns, Extension Table 48 x 60 inches extending $3650.00.$1825.00 to 8 feet. China Closet, Server, 4 Side and 2 Arm to 8 feet. China Closet, Server, 4 Side and 2 Arm Chairs, with hair cloth seats.

Bureau, Chest of Drawers and Dressing Table.

NOW

BEDROOM FURNITURE

Night Stand,

B850—Queen Anne Mahogany Bow-end full width] Formerly Bed, Bureau, Chifforobe and semi-vanity Dressing $669.00. $334.50 NOW Chair and Bench to match. Each formerly $33.00. Now......$16.50

B765-Early American Mahogany Twin Beds, $1320.00. $800.00

NOW $665.00

formerly $52, now $29. formerly $72, now $40. formerly $48, now $28.

of the Maker" UPHOLSTERED FURNITURE

Complete suites or single pieces made to order for prompt delivery from our own New York City Factory. Flint& Horner Co Inc

20.26 West 36th St.

Same Suite with full width Bed. Formerly $1112.00. SPECIAL—SOLID MAHOGANY $35

ered in fine

grade ticking. $24.50

FREIGHT PAID TO ALL ! HIPPING POINTS IN TH UNITED STATES